

Tihar women inmates empowered through skills

With an aim to transform the lives of Jail Inmates by skilling them and eventually emerging them as a reformed citizen, Project Rupaantar an initiative by GJSCI recently certified the first batch of Tihar women inmates.

On 27th October 2017 at Tihar Jail, GJSCI with Delhi Prisons in coordination with IBJ India certified first skill-empowered batch of 31 women inmates for the job role of Hand sketch designing. These skilled women inmates will be provided work by the jewellers of Delhi and will earn money while they're working in the jail.

To felicitate these women certificate ceremony was organized in the august presence of Mr. Ajay Kashyap, Director General prisons, the event was graced by Mr. Premkumar Kothari, Chairman-GJSCI, Mr. D.D. Karel, Director-GJSCI, Dr. Rajendra Bhola, Director- GJSCI, Mr. Binit Bhatt, CEO-GJSCI, Mr. Ajay Verma, Director- IBJ India, Mr. Jayant Krishna- ED & COO,NSDC and other dignitaries.

“We are happy to see the enthusiasm within the inmates for their batch completion & wish them to have skill-empowered bright future.” said Mr. Ajay Kashyap- Director General, Delhi prisons.

“This is a great achievement in the field of skill development, where we GJSCI as a body is adding a fresh scope of independence and empowerment to the these jail inmates. The interest displayed by the inmates is overwhelming & motivating.” quoted Mr. Binit Bhatt- CEO, GJSCI; followed by the announcement of introducing new job role of Fashion Jewellery.

